Dr. Daveena Tauber is an academic writing consultant who works with individuals and institutions through her consulting practice, Scholar Studio. One of her goals is to help graduate programs increase student success by teaching the largely invisible skills of academic writing. She works with clients in a wide variety of fields both nationally and internationally.

www.scholar-studio.com

Tutorial: Writing and Citing to Avoid Plagiarism

Have you ever wondered why plagiarism is taken so seriously in American higher education? This workshop covers the philosophical and practical issues of using citation in academic writing. Dr. Tauber will cover why, when, and how to integrate sources so that you can be sure you are not plagiarizing.

The seminar will run as a workshop and will also introduce free citation management software that can save you from having to format a bibliography ever again.

November 7, Friday 3:15pm – 4:15pm
Venue: Engineering Building #102